The Spirit Of Religion

*In religion we see God;
In God we see ourselves.
In ourselves we see each other.*

The Spirit Of Involvement

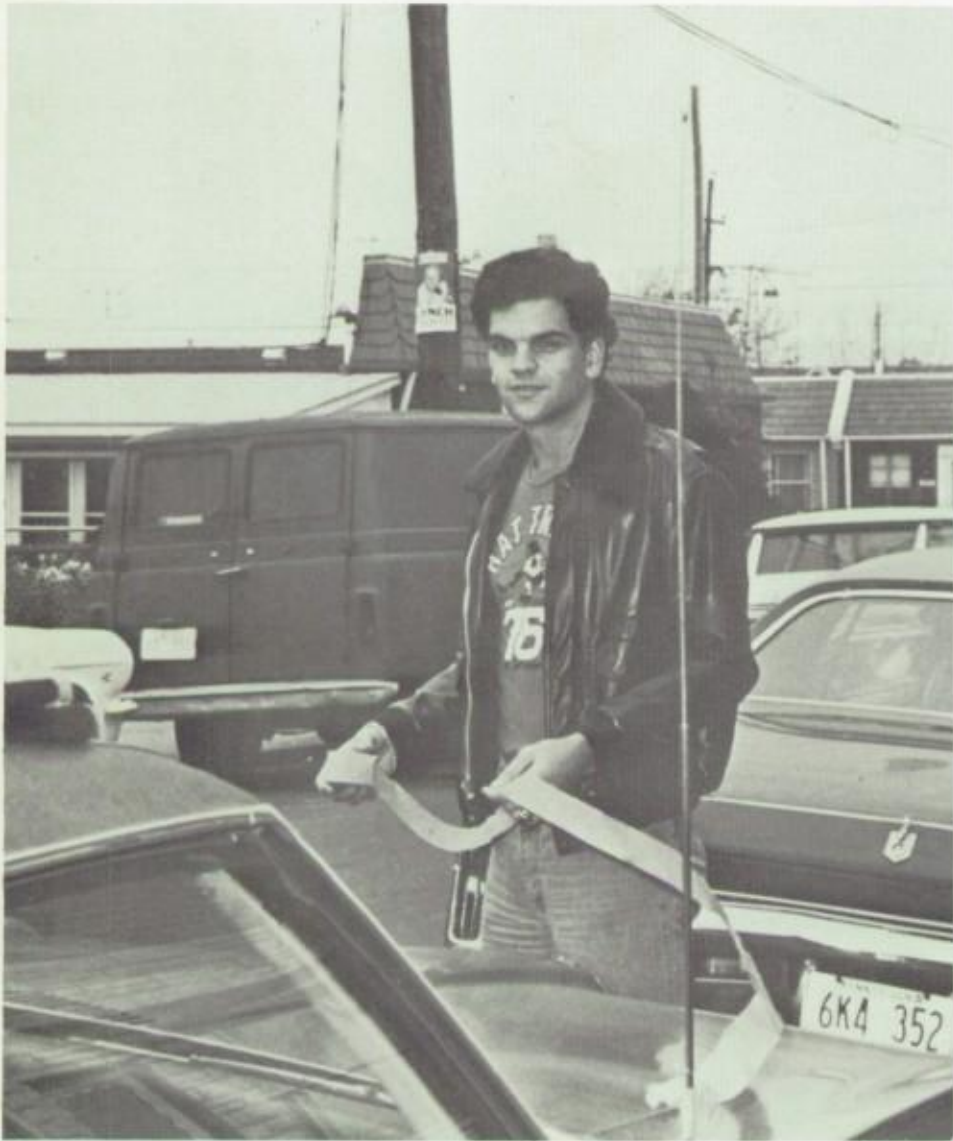

*You have to push yourself
To the limit and one step beyond...*

The Spirit Of Sportsmanship

To be able, for no apparent reason, to motivate yourself—that is truly the Spirit within us ...

His Holiness Pope John Paul II

1978 was a year of three Popes!
Pope Paul, elected in 1963,
died on August 6, 1978

After only 34 days in office,
Pope John Paul I died on September 28, 1978

Cardinal Krol offered a special Mass on Sunday, September 17, 1978. The occasion was his Silver Jubilee as a bishop. Representatives from parishes throughout the diocese came to the Spectrum for this Mass. Before the Cardinal came to Philadelphia in 1961, he had served as auxiliary bishop in his hometown of Cleveland, Ohio.

At Saint Gabriel's Church on October 1, 1978, the Very Rev. John J. Cox, O. Praem. celebrated his 25th year in the priesthood. Following the celebration of the Mass, his guests attended a dinner at the Stadium Hilton Hotel. Congratulations, Father Cox!!!

Neumann Cage Fortunes On

By TED SILARY

Maybe a minute, at the most, had gone by since the end of yesterday's Catholic League basketball game at St. John Neumann and if you'd tried to pass judgment by listening to the sounds emitting from the home team's dressing room, you'd have thought a riot had broken out.

Not only were many of the Pirates, fresh from earning a 62-60 victory over St. Joseph's Prep, screaming at the tops of their lungs, but most were also banging on lockers, creating the kind of fascinatin' rhythms most often found on an FM radio station, or maybe at your nearest disco.

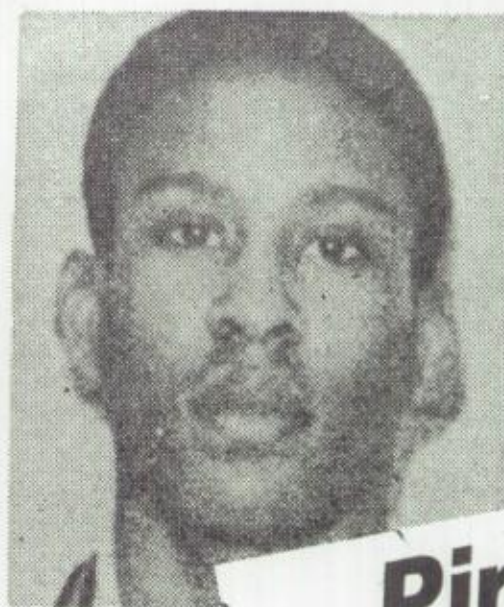

John Kennedy exploded for 27 points to lead Neumann (9-4), and received plenty of support from Howard Little and John Delario, who had 11 points each. Paul DeAngelis led Bonner (3-9) with 18 points, and Chuck Phelan and Wally Rutecki contributed 17 and 11, respectively.

Tom O'Hara (16 points) and Dave Kerins (13) led the losers. Ralph M... led to...

Anyway, after permitting the would-be disturbance to run its course, Coach Jim Stinger made a speech to his budding collection of Tarzans and Buddy Richs and emerged with a smile that nearly set his face afire.

THEN, EXPRESSLY designed for a reporter's consumption, Stinger offered a quick one-liner — "Now THAT was something to write about" — which served to establish his point of view on a troubled weekend ... that "riots" like these are much more worthy of newspaper space.

In case you missed it, there was a real ruckus Friday night as Neumann hosted Archbishop Carroll. And though it began, like always, with a player from each school going fist-to-fist, it soon full of uninvited with the Patriots, trailing 55-30:03 to go in the third quarter, lining their team from the floor conceding defeat.

"It was a rough weekend," said Stinger, whose Pirates stand in a wacky as ever Southern Division. "What happened was unfortunate and I found it tough to get it out of my mind. Though we won, and it WAS a big win, I couldn't feel happy.

Pirates Return

By MIKE HOULDIN

Catholic school students may score big on national tests as reported in the past, but in South Philadelphia this year, they are hoping the kids at St. John Neumann appear less than perfect memories. Following their 67-58 conquest of winless Bonner last Friday night, Neumann appears headed for the playoffs but if there's one thing they'd like to do, it's to win the playoff game three winters ago at the time of the short jumper with only four seconds left. Neumann's Mike Morrow dashed Pirate triumph into the cold Philadelphia night, much out of it. They haven't returned since.

The current

PALESTRA—fever hit Neumann's basketball team this season. The team had an outstanding year, as these headlines prove. As this book goes to press, Neumann goes to play in the semi-finals against Roman.

On a basketball court Howard (Skate) Little might be considered too Little. Skate stands 5-6, and, when he moves around he is an explosive package ready to ignite many scoring opportunities.

You can't miss Skate as he performs for St. John Neumann High. If you happen to blink your eyes just look for the blur from his head band as he motors down the court.

Skate's creativity on the court can be seen when he penetrates with authority and hits the open man. He can blow the lights out of a gym with his radar jumper. In the Catholic League, he has torn up many basketball games with his offensive inventions. When Skate touches the ball, something creative usually happens.

Little is averaging 11 points, seven assists and five steals. He scored 21 points against Yeadon High and 22 points at Archbishop Carroll. In the Southern Division, he sees a lot of extra defensive pressure.

"I'm having an up and down year," Little said. "Teams are concentrating on me, but that don't bother me. I approached the year with the idea of helping my team the best I can in many different ways. I try to do more than just score. I still have a long way to go."

Skate has that South Philly toughness. He's not afraid to take the ball inside.

"It's from the area you live," Little said. "You have to have confidence in yourself. You just go out and do the best you can."

"If somebody blocks my shot, I can keep my head and don't let it get me down. I had to learn to do that. I can drive, stick the jumper. If I do drive, I like to fake, get my man up in the air and look to pass the ball off. This past summer I spent many hours playing in the leagues in South Philly.

"I'm quicker," Skate said. "I can pass the ball much better than I did last summer. I shot the ball a lot better. I borrow a friend of mine's go out and shoot at least a day."

"I tried to play with guys who learned to use my quickness. I'm getting better in my passing and defense. I play with teammate Marty Campbell and going to be so good."

Besides being 5-6, the two things which distinguish Little is his nickname, Skate, and the headband he wears in games.

"People call me that for two reasons," Little said. "They say I play like Nate Archibald. Also one day it was snowing and I was out playing basketball. They say I was sliding all over the court."

"I wear the head band to keep the sweat from getting in my face, just like Slick Watts."

Howard Little has created his own image, just ask anyone in South Philly about the SKATE.

Just when we figured that the basketball wars in the Catholic League Southern Division were about to go serene on us, here came the weekend just past, which featured a victory by St. Joseph's Prep (then 3-3) over Roman Catholic (then 6-0) as an appetizer on Friday then a heck of a main course as prepared by St. John Neumann later that night and continuing into yesterday afternoon.

The Pirates, unpredictable bunch that they are, began their weekend by walking the plank at the insistence of West Catholic (at home, no less), 73-52, and finished by taking a cutlass to the heart of Cardinal O'Hara (away, no less), 61-54.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming is a spectacular event on the school's calendar. It is a time for showing real school spirit. The Pep Rally began the annual Homecoming. On Thanksgiving Day, Neumann again defeated Southern, preserving our winning tradition. The Turkey Trot concluded this festive week in honor of our determined, hard-working football team.

BACCALAUREATE

The Baccalaureate Mass is the last religious ceremony for the senior class. They unite in prayer, thanking God for his blessings in the past and asking for His continuing guidance in the future.

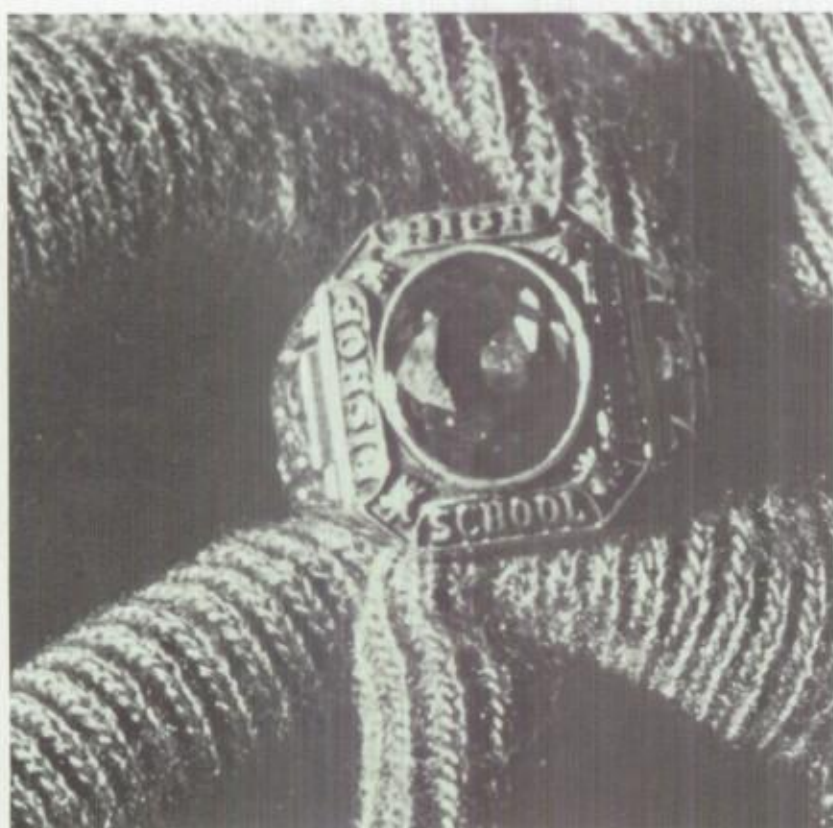

COMMENCEMENT

The Commencement ceremony is the final assembling of the graduating class. Traditionally held at the Civic Center, this ceremony involves the family and friends of all the seniors. The senior class joyously celebrates the power of the spirit within them!

RING MASS

The Ring Mass this year was celebrated at Stella Maris Church. The blessing and the reception of rings takes place at the start of senior year, as the class asks God's blessings upon its final school year at Neumann.

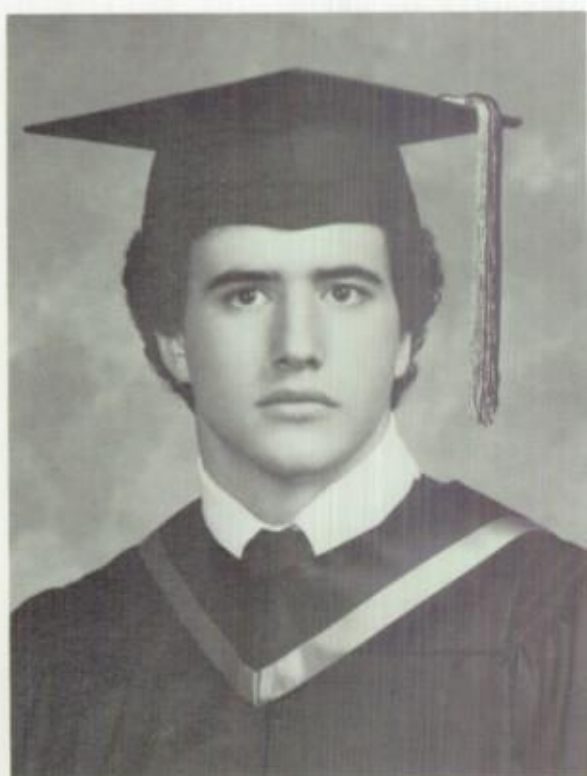

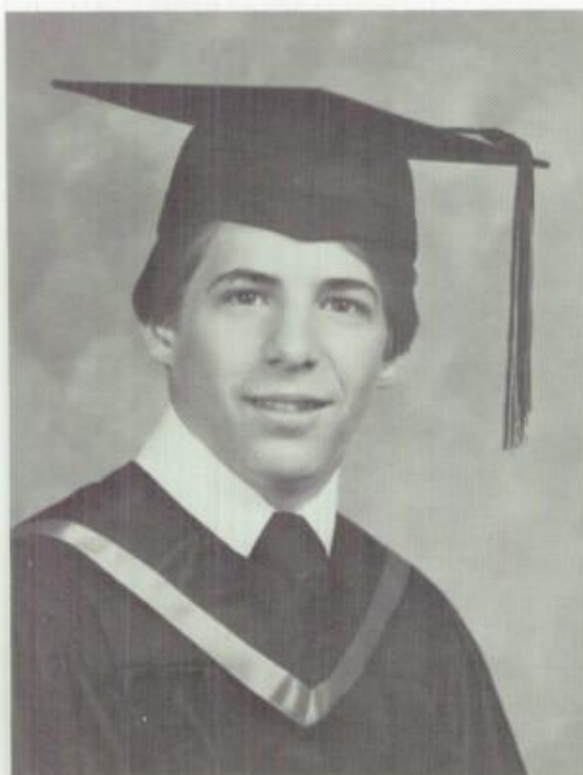

Ring Dance

The Ring Dance, like the Prom, always proves to be an unforgettable evening. For each Senior, the ring is a symbol of his having been a part of Neumann for four years.

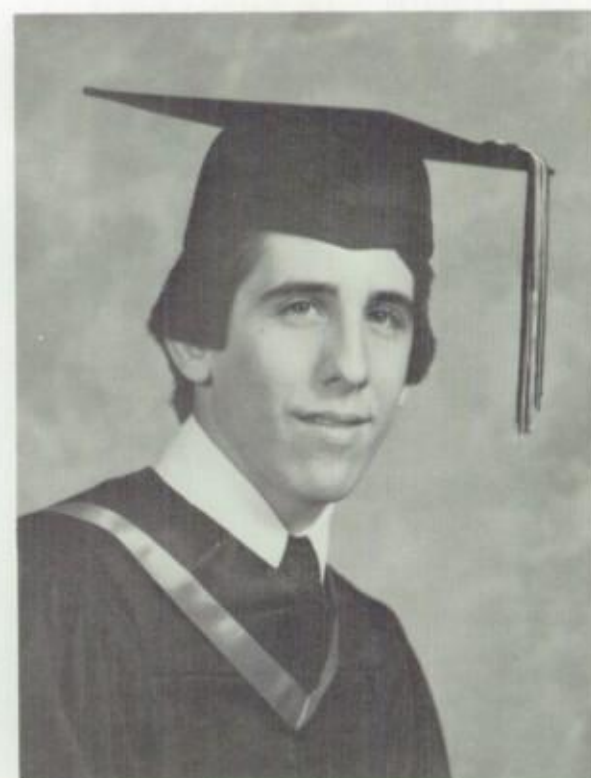

LOUIS CAMBRIA has been a student of outstanding quality throughout his four years at Neumann. Lou has participated in activities such as the Rocket and the football team. Lou's teachers have good reason to vote him an "outstanding senior".

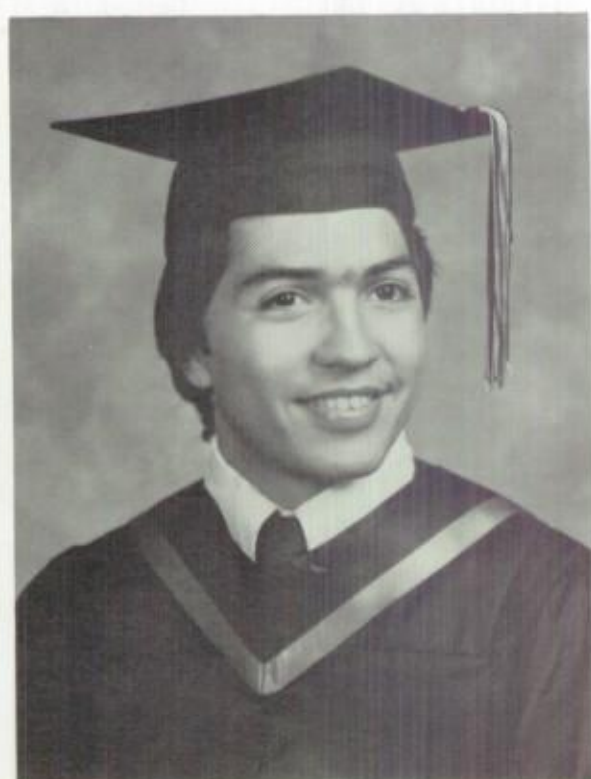

LOUIS DIORIO has shown great school spirit in everything he does. He has shown himself a dependable Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Council and has unquestionably earned the title of "outstanding senior".

FRANCIS FIERKO has blended academic and activity success during his time at Neumann. He is president of the N.H.S. and a member of the Neumann players. Fran is certainly an example of an "outstanding senior".

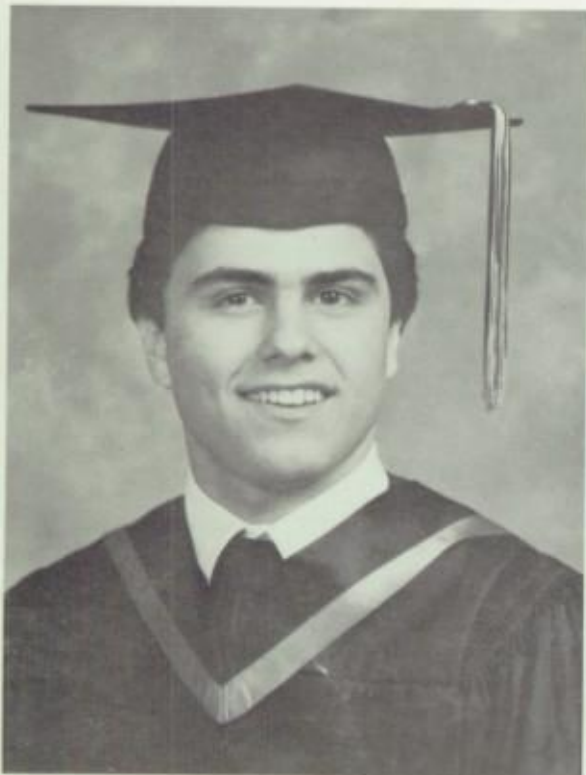

SENIORS OUTSTANDING

JOHN GIAFAGLIONE has been a student of great leadership at Neumann. Vice-President of the Student Council, Rocket staff member, Forensic Union member and qualified Neumann player, John truly deserves the description of "outstanding senior".

WILLIAM KETTERLINUS makes it look easy to be President of the Student Council, although that office brings responsibilities. Involved in track, the Rocket, the German Club and other activities, "Ket" rates as a very "outstanding senior".

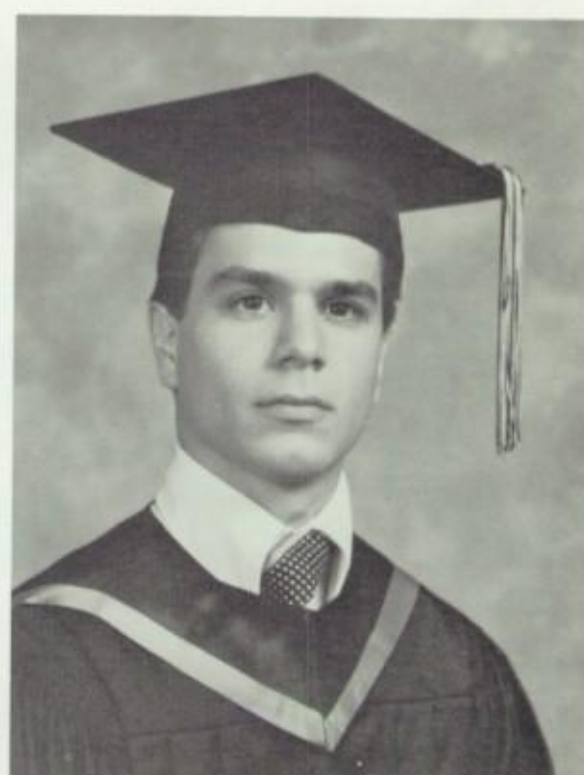

MAURICE LELII has taken part in many activities during his time at Neumann, including soccer. He was chosen to play "All-Catholic" for two years. Maurice is also a top student in classwork, and has really earned the title "outstanding senior."

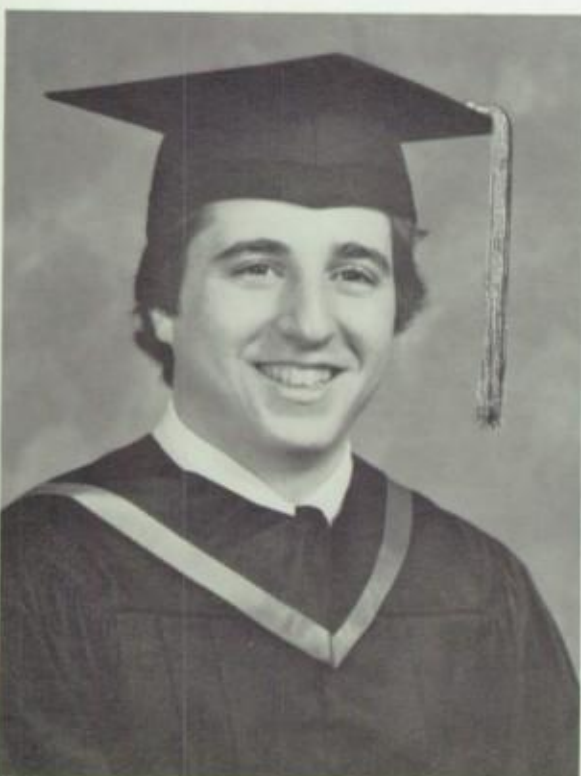

JOHN LEONARD gives evidence of great interest in Neumann school activities. As a member of the basketball team, John combines quite successfully the descriptions "athlete" and "student". John is a well-liked "outstanding senior."

LOUIS LOZZI has done great work as President of the Senior Class this year at Neumann. Throughout his time at Neumann, Lou has worked hard and well in school activities. He is without a doubt an "outstanding senior".

IN ACTIVITIES

ANTHONY MACCHIAVELLI, editor-in-chief of the Rocket, has been a man of high standards. His academic work and general enthusiasm for Neumann are reasons for which his teachers have selected him as an "outstanding senior".

LEON PLOCHA has been a member of the football team and other activities. He is a dependable helping-hand in the athletic department, a student of whom St. John Neumann High School is proud. He qualifies well to be known as an "outstanding senior".

THIS "ROOM" IS "THE PITS"
AS THE SAYING GOES
I'd be the first to agree.

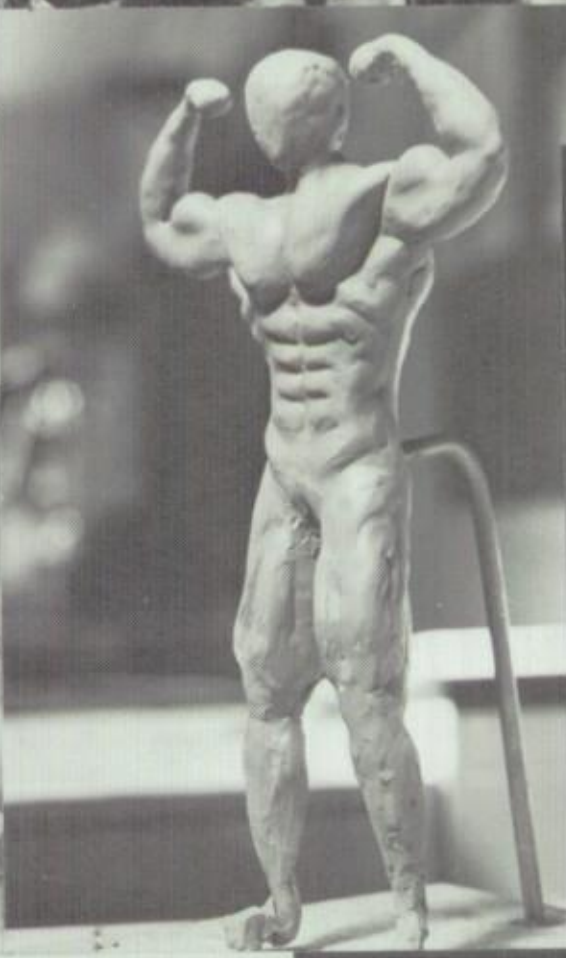

HOWEVER we all could empty
The wastebasket
once in a while.

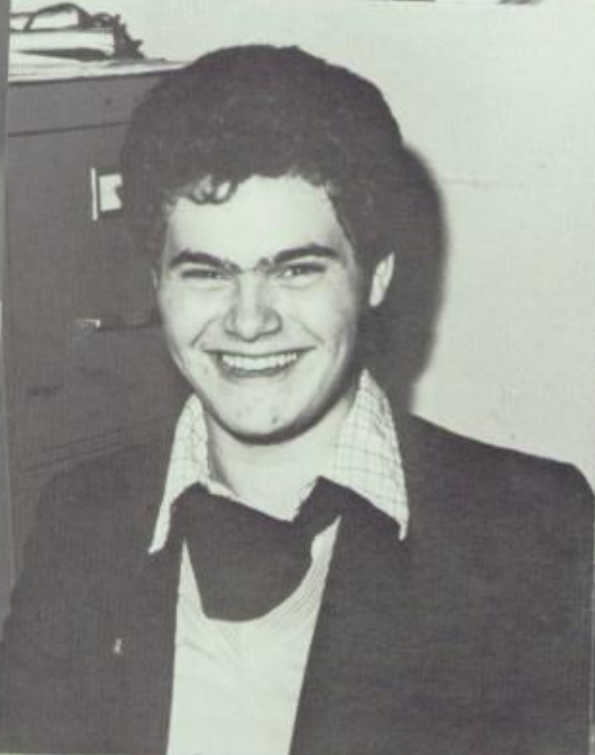

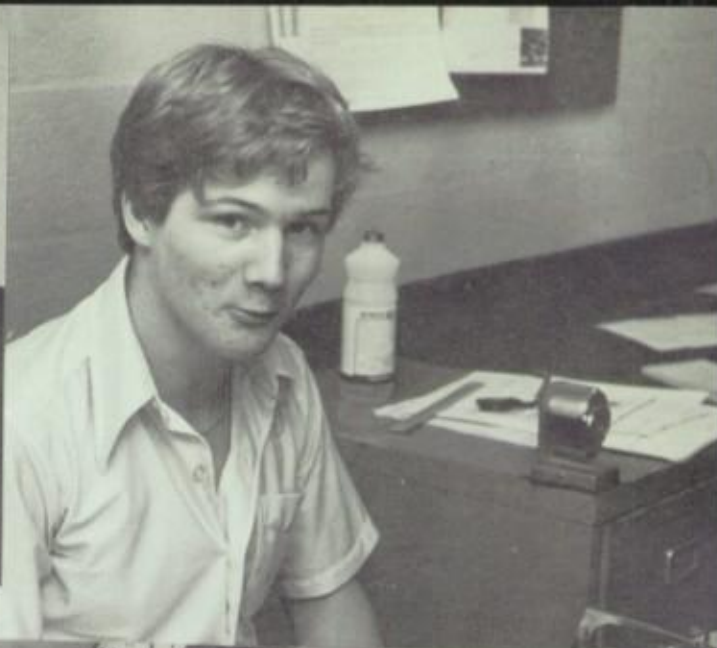

It doesn't take much to take some care of it, to keep it half-decent.
It is all we got!!!

THANK YOU FOR NOT LEAVING FOOD OR SODA IN THE ROOM... I SPENT TIME
HERE ON SATURDAY (YOU IF) SWEEPING AND CLEANING UP SODA CANS, FRENCH FRIES, SODA CANS... ETC. I SUPPOSE I'LL JUST KEEP DOING THAT ONCE IN A WHILE. I DON'T SEE IT AS MY JOB, BUT I'LL DO IT ANYWAY. MOST ARE CO-OPERATING WITH MY REQUEST, AND I HOPE IT HELPS MAKE THIS PIT A LI LESS UNPLEASANT OF A PLACE.

Thanks to those co-operating
